EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This communication is an Examiner's reasons for allowance in response to application filed on 12/13/00, assigned serial 09/734678 and title "Navigation system".
2. The following is the Examiner's statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

After carefully reviewing the application in light of the amended claims and the additional search of all the possible areas relevant to the present application, a set of related prior art references has been found, but those prior art references are not deemed strong to make the application unpatentable. Thus, it is found that the application is now in condition for allowance.

Although the references found disclose several claimed limitations, none of the references discloses a navigation system comprising: a plurality of memory devices, each of which stores the same road map data; and a road map data reading device for accessing one of the memory device, which is selected in accordance with a predetermined condition, and reading out the road map data required for the navigation operation directly from the selected memory device (claim 1); wherein road map data reading device selects the memory device to be accessed, which is indicated by a priority flag set in advance (claim 2). Also, none of the references found, a management information storage device holds name information indicative of a name of the road map data, and road map data reading device selects the memory device to be accessed, in which a presence of the road map data is confirmed in accordance with the name information; also, management information storage device holds date and time information indicative of date and time when the road map data is updated, and road map data reading device selects the memory device to be accessed, which is capable of reading out the road map data corresponding to the date and time information indicative of latest date and time (claim 7); a differential management information storage device for extracting the management information from the memory devices and holding differential management information indicative of a difference between the management information extracted from one memory device and extracted from another memory device, wherein road map data reading device selects the memory device to be accessed in accordance with the differential management information (claim 8). None of the references found, a navigation system comprising: a road map data transferring device for controlling a first memory device to read out the road map data from record medium at a predetermined timing, and then transferring and storing the read out road map data to a second memory device; and road map data reading device for selecting one of first and second memory devices in accordance with a predetermined condition, accessing the selected one of first and second memory devices and reading out the road map data required for the navigation operation directly from the selected memory device (claim 9); road map data transferring device compares the name information of the road map data in first memory device with that in second memory device, and selects the road map data, which is not stored in second memory device, as the road map data to be transferred (claim 11); road map data transferring device compares the date and time information of the road map data in first memory device with second memory device, and selects the road map data, whose date and time in second memory device is older than that in first memory device, as the road map data to be transferred (claim 12). Also, none of the references found, a differential management information generating device for comparing management information of the map data in first memory device with management information of the map data in second memory device at a predetermined timing, and generating differential management information indicative of a difference between the compared management informations; and a map data reading device for selecting one of first and second memory devices in accordance with the differential management information, accessing the selected one of first and second memory devices and reading out the map data required for the navigation operation therefrom (claim 17).

Claims 1-17 are allowable over the prior art of record.
